

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Woman of the Year 2020

In recognition of outstanding service and dedication to the people of the State of California

Deborah Kopit

Presented by:

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Ling Ling Chang".

Senator Ling Ling Chang, 29th District

March 23, 2020

How We Won the Vote in California, by Selina Solomons, published in 1912
California was the sixth state to allow women the right to vote. The vote, afforded to all Californians, in 1911, was commemorated by flags and images recognizing California as the Sixth Star. The nation would not allow women to vote until 1920, almost ten years later.